Open-shop contractors also lack many of the "terms and conditions" provisions found in union construction. These terms and conditions, which include such things as "show up pay," add a significant premium to the cost of union construction, at least 14-20 percent on public construction and a whopping 30-35 percent on private construction projects.

Benefits of Open Shop | Merit Construction Alliance

Closed construction is common in assembled buildings with concealed or inaccessible electrical or plumbing. The most common prefabricated building that falls into this category is a trailer office or mobile home.
