Gospel of Mark: Some time after 70, the Gospel of Mark arrived in the Matthean community, was accepted as part of the community's own sacred tradition, and was used in its life and worship. Matthew's own material: Matthew's Gospel contains the first use of the term "church" to describe a community of believers.

The Gospel of Matthew: Introduction and Overview

Background " Setting: The Jewish flavor of Matthew's gospel is remarkable. This is evident even in the opening genealogy, which Matthew traces back only as far as Abraham. In contrast, Luke, aiming to show Christ as the Redeemer of humanity, goes all the way back to Adam. Matthew's purpose is somewhat narrower.

Gospel of Matthew - Book of Revelation

Matthew offers us a view of life and of the world that is grounded in God's plan and purpose, focused in the coming of Jesus and worked out in the ongoing work of the church. The first book in our New Testament has a fitting place in the centre of the Bible, linking the two parts together.
