Popular memories: Commemoration, participatory culture

Ekaterina Haskins's™ Popular Memories: Commemoration, Participatory Culture, and Democratic Citizenship is the most recent book to approach the role of public memory in forming and sustaining the (always-elusive) democratic citizen.

Popular Memories: Commemoration, Participatory Culture

In Popular Memories: Commemoration, Participatory Culture, and Democratic Citizenship, Professor Ekaterina V. Haskins offers a fresh look at the study of what she calls popular memories, examining how "participatory forms of communication" have "redefined the rhetoric of democratic citizenship." She explores in detail how four very different campaigns for participatory public memory ...
